 - b. "Beyond the Shush" assertive and professional communication, balancing work/life, dealing with anxiety, multigenerational workplace
 - c. 4 hours away, willing to do some breakouts, will need a hotel for the night before
 - d. Alyce will get final details on speaking fee

7. Review Submissions for Call for Programs
 - a. Any action regarding submissions
 - i. Program for IPLAR presentation doesn't feel like it's aimed for front line staff. Alyce will contact Laura about this.
 - ii. RSA Staff doing WF Tips and Tricks, Cataloging and RSA website tour.

- iii. Sara will reach out to Al Quilter to see how much would charge. It's possible that Al Quilter would be a keynote and Lisa P. could do different breakout sessions, depending on cost.
 - iv. Sara will reach out to Beth about the Acquisitions module.
- 8. Any other program topics to recruit for
 - a. Have 18 breakout spots that we can fill – We have 5 for sure: Tips and Tricks, Cataloging, Website tour, 2 for Lisa P., Round tables, RAILS, Emergency producers? (Jenny will talk to her new security manager), Programming for seniors?, Weeding (Alissa will email Peoria area Director's list to ask for this)? Last session of the day – no breakouts open up into networking
- 9. Adjournment (9:57am)

Next Meeting: October 20, 2026, Fondulac District Library
